

Seasonal Rentals are Offered Now at Bargain Rates

Consider the convenience and savings of renting your ski or snowboard equipment in the fall, keeping it for the season, and returning it next spring. For a low, one time charge, you can have peace of mind; no waiting, picking up equipment or risk of the shop running out of equipment. Also, seasonal rentals are appreciated by parents who don't want to invest an arm and leg for junior equipment that the kids end up growing out of in one season or less! Hurry in for best selection. These pre-season rates end October 31, 2007.
